Workplace Rehabilitation

Stay at Work/Return to Work Policy Statement

Community Enterprise Queensland (CEQ) recognises that helping workers to stay at work, or make an early and safe return after an injury, minimises the impact of injury on them and their families.

CEQ support injured workers by having a system of workplace rehabilitation and providing suitable duties for them while they are recovering.

CEQ expects that all injured workers will return to work on suitable duties as soon as it is medically safe to do so.

CEQ has appointed Rehabilitation and Return to Work Coordinators (RRTWC) to manage workplace rehabilitation for injured workers.

As part of our system of workplace rehabilitation CEQ is committed to:

- providing a safe and healthy work environment
- encouraging the early reporting of injuries
- making suitable duties available to injured workers as soon as possible after an injury occurs
- consulting with injured workers to develop their suitable duties program
- respecting the confidentiality of our worker's medical and rehabilitation information
- reviewing this policy and associated procedures at least every three years

Experience shows that being back at work is an important part of recovering from a work related injury
